

Time	Place: Oslo Kongressenter
13:00-13:05	Welcome
13:05-13:20	Novel algorithm for age assessment of adolescents and young adults by DNA methylation Håvard Aanes, Research Group: Forensic Age Assessment
13:20-13:35	A crime solved: New methods for interpretation of biological traces Elida Fonnelløp, Research Group: Forensic Genetics
13:35-13:50	The vicious circle in SIDS Siri Hauge Opdal, Research group: Pediatric Forensic Medicine
13:50- 14:05	Seven years of post-mortem CT-scanning. What have we learned? What is next? Arne Stray-Pedersen, Research group: Experimental Forensic Medicine – Injury Mechanics and Image Analysis
14:05-14:30	Panel discussion
14:30-14:45	pause
14:45-15:00	Spontaneous splenic rupture in a patient using a novel oral anticoagulant (NOAC/DOAC) – an underestimated side effect? Inga Alicja Zasada, No stone left unturned; the importance of forensic medicine in the protection of children’s legal rights Lillian Bøylestad, Research group: Forensic pathology and clinical forensic medicine
15:00-15:15	Implementation of tailored interventions to treat harmful alcohol and drug use for medical patients - AlcoTail Benedicte Marie Jørgenrud, Research group: Substance Use and Health Outcomes
15:15-15:30	Forensic Toxicology and Pharmacology of Drugs of Abuse - research for better methods Elisabeth Leere Øiestad, Research group: Forensic Toxicology and Pharmacology of Drugs of Abuse
15:30-15:45	Forensic Toxicology and Pharmacology of Drugs of Abuse - research for better interpretation Gudrun Høiseth and Cecilie Thaulow, Research group: Forensic Toxicology and Pharmacology of Drugs of Abuse
15:45-16:00	Opioid maintenance treatment during pregnancy – long-term effects on the next generation(s) Jannike Mørch Andersen, Research group: Experimental Drug Abuse Research
16:00-16:45	Panel discussion
16:45-17:00	pause
17:00	Dinner at Oslo kongressenter (Historiske Henrik)