The Midland Universities Child & Infant Eating Studies (MUnChIES) group invite you to the

International Conference on Children's Eating Behaviour (ICCEB)

Taking place:
University of Birmingham, UK
21st & 22nd March, 2019

This conference will be of interest and relevance to academics, researchers and health practitioners working in the field of childhood eating behaviour.

Topics of discussion at the conference will include:

- Parenting and responsive feeding
- Sensory influences on eating behaviour
- ARFID, autism and avoidant child eating behaviour
- Early intervention & management: a medical perspective
- Healthy eating and fruit and vegetable intake

Our incredible line-up of confirmed speakers includes:

Dr Clare Llewellyn (UCL, UK)
Dr Rosan Meyer (Imperial College, London UK)
Prof Ole Mouritsen (University of Copenhagen, DK)
Dr Chantel Nederkoorn (Maastricht University, NL)
Dr Jennifer Savage (Penn State University, USA).
Dr Liz Shea (Birmingham Food Refusal Services, UK)
Rachel Scowcroft (a perspective of an adult with ARFID)
Dr Theo Wong (Birmingham Children’s Hospital & University of Birmingham, UK)
Joanna Matthews (Parent and SLT perspective, Birmingham Children’s Hospital, UK)

Registration and call for abstracts are open NOW!
Early bird registration available until 25th January, 2019

For full details about this event visit bit.ly/icceb19